DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-4 and 6-17 are presented for examination.

Applicant's Amendment filed August 25, 2008 has been received and entered into the present application. Claims 10-17 are withdrawn. Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are pending and are herein examined on the merits.

Applicant's arguments, filed August 25, 2008 have been fully considered. Rejections not reiterated from previous Office Actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set of rejections presently being applied to the instant application.

Maintained Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The rejection of claims 1-4 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Oliveira et al. (US Pub. No. 2003/0157239 A1) has been maintained for the reasons stated in the prior Office Action March 26, 2008 and further in view of the following remarks.

Response to Arguments

Applicant has amended claim 1 to provide that the composition is selected from the group consisting of dog food compositions, cat food compositions and combinations thereof. Applicant argues that Oliveira et al. fails to teach every element of the claims. Applicant further argues while Oliveira disclose that soybean meal is fed to dogs and cats, with regards to a composition comprising astaxanthin were compositions that were fed to Atlantic Salmon. Examiner does not agree Oliveira et al. disclose a protein and energy source in manufacturing animal feeds for shrimps, calves, and pet animals such as cats and dogs, and further the compositions comprises of astaxanthin that it is also fed to Atlantic salmon it is not prohibited to be fed to the above mentioned animals such cats and dogs the soy bean meal is fed to different animals including cats and dogs. As long as it is taught by Oliveira that the energy source composition soy bean meal further comprising astaxanthin can be to animals such as fish it can also be fed to animals such as cats and dogs. Therefore, Oliveira et al. anticipate the claims.

Art Unit: 1614

Applicant's arguments were considered in its entirety but failed to be persuasive.

Conclusion

No claims of the present application are allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
